

As a family of four, all either working full-time or going to school, our day is long. We DO NOT want to be bothered at dinner or in the evening, or weekends with nuisance calls. If we want to buy something, we shop carefully ourselves and seek out the source. It only makes me more angry and less likely to purchase something when I am solicited! Please keep the no call list.

Sue Babcock